

Brian Barlow (drummer/percussionist/arranger/producer) spent most of his career in the Toronto recording studios and is one of Canada's most recorded musicians. His current passion is writing and arranging for his 17 piece big band made up of some of the finest jazz and ensemble players in Canada.